Bichard Yates will open his campaign for the United States senatorship in Illinois within the next ten days. This word was brought to St. Louis by a politician who is thoroughly in touch with things at Springfield.

The senatorial campaign was scheduled to open at Hardin, Calhoun County, Iscember 27. The sudden illness of Mrs. Yates prevented this, and since that time the leaders in the Federal crowd have made much capital of the failure of the factors of covernor to begin operations.

The news is now given out that Mrs. Yates has materially improved, and the men who are to have charge of the Yates campaign are making every preparation for beisk business. Mrs. Yates has materially improved, and the yer precarious condition. At the time that the campaign was temporarily set aside, the situation was very grave and it was a choice between a fight for political honors or a light for his wife's life with Governor Yates.

Since the decided mend in Mrs. Yates's condition things have changed materially and the Yates men are girding up their loins for the festivities.

Republicant, who are closely in touch with the doings in city affairs, are beginning to believe that there is to be a radical change in the line-up between the different camps of pointiclans.

It was confidently predicted yesterday by one who is prominent at the inner-circle conferences when there is a big stunt brewing that Chairman Thomas K. Neldringhaus of the State Committee is about ready to take a new tack in his views of things.

The fact is no longer concealed that a determined effort is on foot to displace Chairman Niedringhaus with a man from out in the State at the next State Canventon. Congressman Shartel, nothwithstanding his statement from Washington that he was not a candidate for the office, is certainly believed to be the candidate of the Niedringhaus opposition.

A Republican Congressman who was in St. Louis yesterday referates that Congressman Shartel at the psychological moment, if that ever arrives, will permit his candidacy to be pushed and will not again be a candidate for Congress in the Fifteenth District.

MAY DEFEAT STATE CHARMAN.

CAMPAGN SOON

It is said that chairman Niedringhaus's friends realize that a concerted effort against him might have a disastrous result to him, to the present State organization and to the plans which have been formulated for the control of party affairs for the next few years.

Should the Aloe crowd in St. Louis, backed by the Ludwig supporters and the Missouri Chrb, join in the anti-Niedringhaus Grounds.

This is the point where Niedringhaus followers are disposed to save themselves. Leaders in the element which is at present a minority in the City Committee, are believed to be in a position where a compromise is possible. Several of them within the next ten days. The thieves were interrupted in their work by Mr. Buttliff's son, who fired two shots at them as they ran from the house yesterday morning at 2.30 o'clock. The young man was awakened by the continued barking of a little lap dog on the lower floor, and went downstairs to investigate. He found the rear door and a window open and fired two pietol shots at the feeing burglars.

The shots brought Patrolmen Lavin and Neaf to the scene. The policemen found Mr. Buttliff a suit in they jard, where the suit had been rifled of all it contained. The shots fired by young Mr. Buttliff aroused the entire neighborhood, but it was not until he arose yesterday morning that Frank R. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Dec. 31.—Wall street's business week was in every way remarkable, speculative activity broke through all restraints, or was forced bedily through them, and the week came to an end in a wild outburst of glory.

Judging solely by results as them are measured by prices sustained and prices enhanced—in some instances to simply an enormous extent—one would conclude that all had been clear sailing at the year's end. Yet, a man of his own knowledge, knows to the contrary.

The closing week of Wall street's business disclosed at its outset, so far as statistics go the weakest bank position in a generation. That the statistics did not misrepresent the situation is clearly enough shown by the maximum of the call-loan rate on the four full days of the interval, @ per cent on Tuesday, @ per cent on Wednerday, 15 per cent on Thursday and I3 per cent on Priday.

But the new factors and the new forces in the market were not only able to withstand such evidences of acute strings are these, but in the face of it were able to beat down all barriers, everthrow traditions, give the lie to the experienced and especially to carry the last defense of conservatism by assault.

UNISUAL STRENGTH SHOWE.

This is certainly food for reflection is such a wonderful exhibition of strength.

This is certainly food for reflection in a wonderful exhibition of strength as was given in the security market had week. It certainly disclosed that up to the present time the new forces or factors in the situation have been the present time the new forces of Bacterian the situation have been able to retain an absolutely unshaken grip upon both the money and the speculative market.

Without a union of the two, the result, the apparent crowning triumph of the speculative party, could not have been achieved. There can be no two opinions about this.

Men may be hopeful, optimistic, confident of the future, and assuredly in the brilliant industrial situation of the present time there is the basis for their abiding confidence in the future.

Yet, even so, it is not the prudent frevestor that rushes wildly into a specularity market at a time of great disturbance, and assuredly the considerations that impelled tremendous boying operations at a time of acute monetary stringency, with money above 180 per cent, are not such as appeal to investors.

Neither do they appeal to speculaters unless they have some assurance or are buoyed by some helief that funds are or will be ample to provide for their cnormous commitments.

A merchant would surely curtail the lime of credit granted to a customer who displayed such lack of business judgment. Even if the customer insisted that by such an operation he would certainly make a profit, the merchant or the safe banker would insist that the risk was too great.
